

March 6, 2009

Dear Ms. Bryant,

Thank you for taking time away from your day to come to our school and answer our questions. You are a very patient person. I could not imagine how you could stay in one room for six hours answering questions from different classes when they could've been repeated again and again in each following class. I also admire your self-motivation. Even though your dad always believed in you, you still had to push yourself thru all the rejections you got to make yourself succeed. You are a great role model for young kids. You showed us that hard work definately pays off, and that sometimes you will struggle, but you have to just keep on trying. Ms. Bryant, you are a very creative and intelligent person. You went to college to learn Old English, and you have an interesting number of book ideas and idea for your character's names. Most of all, you are a very down to earth person. You don't brag about yourself. Once again, thank you.

Yours Truly,
Khadija Shalbi

Dear Ms. Bryant

Thank you for being such a creative writer. I haven't been able to put down your book from the minute I got it. The prophacy keepers is filled with so much suspense I can't wait until the next book comes out even tho I'm not finished with this one. My parents have been threatening to take the book away as a punishment for not cleaning my room. I have made you one of my role models, because one of my favorite ~~pa~~ things to do in my past time is write non fiction literature and all types of poetry.

Sincerely - Zoe Cohen
A fan